

"Alabastine," a Fire Proof Cement

ALABASTINE is not only the best inside coating in the world for churches, opera houses, club houses, office buildings, and dwellings, but is used everywhere for factories, cotton mills, army posts, plantation buildings, hospitals, asylums, etc., largely on account of its fire-proof properties. ALABASTINE is perfectly fire-proof in its nature, is a cement that can be mixed thick and used in filling cracks, and sets very hard over night. Is cheaper than and superior to paint.

Wall Paper vs. Alabastine

Think of having bedrooms covered with layers of moulding flour paste to feed vermin, with paper to hide them and to absorb the moisture of respiration, and an animal glue culture ground on its face for disease germs; also of repeating this papering without removing the old, and a number of times, at that, as many do. Then think of a room coated with pure, permanent ALABASTINE, which is retinted with but little trouble or expense, and is purifying and sweet-smelling. ALABASTINE cements cracks, shutting out vermin.

McFadden Has Morch
All In-Poole Scored Neat Knockout

Jack McFadden had the best of the three rounds which his contest with Sailor Morch went last night at the Central Athletic Club, but Morch was not so decisively knocked out but that the crowd yelled for more fighting. "Mac" had the best of it from the first, in what was to have been a 6-round go, the main event of the evening. He sent a left straight to the chin at the close of the second round, and Morch was on the floor taking the count when the gong sounded. McFadden started the third round fighting hard. He upped Morch continually, and shot home right and left swings to head and face. He got in a stinging right hook to the point and down went Morch.

"Mac" was standing by the ropes receiving congratulations, and Tait, the referee, had quit counting, when Morch rose to his feet, and put up his hands to fight. McFadden whirled around, but Tait stepped in and sent Morch to his corner, on the ground that he had been on the floor over ten seconds, and out by all rights.

The men were fighting at 126, though both claimed to have the worst of the weight proposition. There is no doubt, on the other hand, that Tait did the square thing in stopping the fight then and there, as Morch was evidently beaten, and it would only have prolonged matters to have had him in the ring for another part of a round.

Preliminaries

In the first preliminary, scheduled for six rounds, Bill Poole of Fort Shafter tucked away Red Casey of the same place with a right swing dush to the jaw, after one minute and fifteen seconds of fighting. Casey went off his feet in the first clinch. Poole presently got home a hard right to the heart. He had Casey groggy with a right and left to the head, and then—bingo!—it was all over.

The second preliminary a 6-round contest between Joe Cabral and Young Heine, went the limit, Joe getting it on the decision. In the first, second, and fourth rounds, the fight was all Cabral's. He landed almost all of the clean blows, worrying Heine continually with a quick left jab to the face, which had his man bleeding in the third round. Heine was stronger in the third, fifth, and sixth, but he could not get at his man well, and when Referee Eddie Tait held up Joe's arm as a sign that he was the winner, the decision was popular.

The other preliminary, a 6-round go between McCullough and Stanley, was given in the sixth round to McCullough, as he had had his man beaten from the first round, but could not land enough of a punch to put away the durable Stanley. This boy is gritty enough.

DIVERSITY OF SPORT AT OLD FISHMARKET

At the Fishmarket this evening a free athletic exhibition will be given for men and officers of the Fleet and for the public in general, the card including one tug-of-war, a wrestling match, and a boxing bout. It is calculated that 1700 people can be accommodated in this place. A band is to be in attendance, and the whole thing made as attractive and enjoyable as possible. Besides all this, the Fishmarket is large and airy, and an ideal place from the point of view of the man who sits in the bleachers.

The first event of the evening, to be held at 7:30 o'clock, will be a tug-of-war between an All-America and a Portuguese team. Then Sailor Roberts and a husky boy from the U. S. S. Iroquois will wrestle some, and Mike Patton and "Demon" Silva will close the evening with a 6-round boxing contest.

PIONEERS WIN OUT FROM ALOHA IN 12 INNINGS

Lahaina, July 16.—The Pioneers defeated the Young Aloha at Kiloahana Park Sunday afternoon, in an exciting and well played game of twelve innings, by a score of 7 to 6. Needless to say, the game was fought from start to finish. The line-up of the teams was as follows:
Pioneers—Manuel, A. Jose, J. Osje, J. Keenani, B. Liliokai, J. Achoy, J. Vierria, J. Moses, P. Espinola.
Young Aloha—Alfred, C. Gohier, Poloka, Pilo, John, Kahahawai, Isaac, Kapano, Charley.

The score by innings:
Pioneers . . . 0 0 0 4 0 0 2 0 0 0 1
Young Aloha . . . 3 0 1 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0

GOOD BOUTS FOR TOMORROW NIGHT

J. Scully Matches Dixon
And Young Nelson
For 10 Rounds

Tomorrow night at Independence Hall, Jack Scully, the most popular of the local fight promoters, will give a show, in which he will have Dixon, the colored lightweight phenom of the Kansas, in the ropes with Young Nelson, the durable local boy, who fought a 10-round draw recently with Rafferty, the champion scrapper who was here on the Alabama.

Nelson has shown himself to be of the durable type, and glories in close-range work. There will be little doubt of the outcome if he can get at his man, but experience has shown that the average man on the ships is rather too shifty, and the fact that 2-minute rounds are the limit in the Navy also seems to diminish the chances of the local man.

However, he had the Indian sign on Rafferty, who was as good as anything in the Fleet at Magdalena. If Dixon can put it on him, it is a certainty that the negro will be as good as anything which has ever been seen in a local ring.

The two are scheduled to go ten rounds.

A preliminary which promises to furnish the crowd with great sport is a 6-round event between Young Sharkey and Wahilani, two boys who boxed such a slashing draw recently at the same hall. They are of the hit-and-take class, and their exhibition last time was a great hit with the crowd.

Jack further expects to get signed today, Prendergast, a very classy boy of the New Jersey, who can go with the best of them, and Huihul, once champion of the local ring, who is getting back into harness. This ought to be a great drawing-card, as all of the fight fans of this city know Huihul, and most of the jack-tars know Prendergast. The men weigh 135 pounds.

Jack is today busy getting things arranged with Lieut. Weaver.

MARINES TRIM PILL-MAKERS

In a game of baseball played Wednesday between the team of the Hospital ship Relief and U. S. marines from the marine camp, the pill makers received rather a severe drubbing, the score being 9-3.

The Marines' line-up was as follows: Faith, cf.; Yoderman, 3b.; Anderson, c.; Winters, 1b.; Masak, 2b.; Hilyard, ss.; Davis, p.; Mike, if.; Ashberry, rf.

THINKS YACHTS WILL BE SLOW

Captain Gus Holmes of the Rosecrans, which arrived here yesterday, is interested in the yacht race, and from his observations while at sea on the trip down here, is inclined to think that the boats will make slow time, as the fresh trades blowing here are not felt many miles out at sea.

P. J. Walsh wants a walking match.

Great Baseball On The Tapis At Park Tomorrow

Tomorrow afternoon, the Kelo University team will have a chance to see what it can do against Dick Reuter's pitching. The opening contest at Baseball Park tomorrow is to be between the Kelos and the Kams. And then the Santa Clara will have an opportunity to find out if they can do any more with Hampton's offerings than they have so far been able to do with Reuter's and Leslie's.

In many respects Dick and "Ham" are far and away the strongest pitchers in the local baseball world, and may be depended on to keep things going in favor of Honolulu baseball players, if they are to go that way.

The Santa Clara men have been working out, trying to get the ball located this week, and something of a surprise may be found when they line up tomorrow. The Kelos have also been working out well, and indications are that the Honolulu fans will be treated to the best and most hotly contested ball games this Saturday which they have ever witnessed.

Advance sale of seats indicate more record crowds, in spite of the opposition of the Wild West Show.

WILD WEST SHOW AT KAPIOLANI PARK TODAY

The first part of Eben Low's Wild West Show is in progress this afternoon at Kapiolani Park. Beginning with 1:30, this event will be going on through the afternoon until 5 o'clock, or a little before that time. Roping will be the order of the day. Then bronco-busting, wild-steer riding, and other exhibitions of the sort will be on the card. Cowboys from all the islands have entered, among them being the very best men in the Territory.

Mr. Low has had new bleachers constructed for the purpose of holding this show, and he promises an elaborate entertainment.

SPORTIVE SPLURGES

Fredericks of the Illinois and Bennett of the Kansas will meet in a six-round go on Tuesday night. These boys will weigh 117 pounds. Fredericks is the boy who was defeated by Rafferty for the featherweight championship of the Fleet. Rafferty and Young Nelson fought a 10-round draw in Honolulu a few weeks ago.

There are 21 entries for the roping contest of the Wild West Show which opens this afternoon, and a large number of entries for all of the events. Angus McPhee, the champion roper, is to be seen.

Champion Meyers, lightweight premier of the Fleet, who was to have been matched with Young Nelson at Independence Hall, had his hand broken in a recent boxing match, and so will not appear here.

There is a possibility that on Tuesday night the winner of the Schlossberger-Patton go may box six rounds with Altieri, the ex-champion heavyweight of the Fleet. Altieri belongs to the Missouri.

Faber of the Virginia, the heavyweight wrestler of the Fleet, who is now at Lahaina, will be here Sunday, and it is expected that he can then be matched with Sailor Roberts.

Schlossberger of the New Jersey and heavyweight champion of the Fleet, has been matched to box six rounds with Mike Patton, the local champion, tomorrow night.

Dixon, a colored lightweight from the Kansas, will box Jack McFadden six rounds on Monday night.

Adion, crack race-horse from Wailuku, arrived here day before yesterday on the Claudine.

Entries for the McInerney golf cup close today at 5 at E. O. Hall & Son.

The Diamond Heads have postponed their aquatic sports until Monday.

The Rapid Transit will allow Reuter, Hamauku, and Fern to play ball.

The Oahu Polo Team has a practice at Kapiolani Park yesterday.

The Hilo Japanese want the Kelo ball team to make a trip there.

Reddy does not favor a Banonica-Bruner match.
